

Mike Stewart
Principal/Superintendent
mike.stewart@libertytechcharter.org

Mr. Stewart has a unique blend of educational and corporate America experience. Originally an operations manager for a Fortune 100 company, he changed careers in 2007, joining Teach for America where he taught Fourth Grade Math in College Park, GA. In 2009, he was on the founding staff of KIPP STRIVE Academy in Atlanta, where he taught 5th Grade Math, 8th Grade Math, and after enjoying six years in the classroom joined administration as the Dean of Students. KIPP STRIVE Academy would become a National Blue Ribbon Award winning school and Charter School of the Year recipient. In 2014, Stewart became the Assistant Principal of The Museum School of Avondale Estates. The Museum School is a high performing charter school in DeKalb County that is also was also a finalist for Charter School of the Year. In his career Stewart has been recognized as a Fulton County Schools Teacher of the Year as well as an Atlanta Families' Award for Excellence in Education winner. Stewart loves serving the students of Liberty Tech as their principal. He and his wife, Amber, have been married for seven years and have a four-year old son, Easton.