gina.tonnis@libertytechcharter.org

Mrs. Tonnis earned a Bachelor's degree in English Literature from the University of Cincinnati in 2000 and went on to earn a Master of Arts in Adolescent and Young Adult Education with a focus in language arts from a private Catholic college in Cincinnati. Until beginning work at Liberty Tech, she was a full-time mom and an adjunct instructor for nine years at Southern Crescent Tech (formerly Griffin Tech). She is also a published author, with one short story (The Rose) published in an anthology of historical fiction focusing on women in history. Her passion is in education and sharing her enthusiasm for English with her students as well as helping students find their "voice" and their confidence. Her hobbies include spending time with family, volunteering at the animal shelter, reading, creating, and travelling.
